UNIVERSITÀ
GREGORIANA

Cardinal Bea Centre for Judaic Studies

2017 - 2018 Brenninkmeijer-Werhahn Visiting Teacher at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome

In the context of the ongoing exchange program between the Hebrew University of Jerusalem through its Center for the Study of Christianity, and the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome through its Cardinal Bea Centre for Judaic Studies, the position of a Visiting Teacher in Judaic Studies at the Gregorian University is becoming available for the Academic Year 2017-2018.

The successful candidate is expected to teach one full course of 24 hours (3 ECTS) for graduate students, over a six-week period between 9 April and 31 May, 2018. The course will be in the fields of Jewish Thought and Rabbinical Literature and will be given in English.

The Pontifical Gregorian University is distinguished by its international character with professorial staff and students coming from over 130 countries around the world. Gifted by the presence of such diversity, which includes students from different religious backgrounds, the Cardinal Bea Centre's unique perspective is dedicated to the promotion of a theological knowledge and understanding of Judaism - from both a Jewish and a Christian perspective - as well as the teaching, research and academic exchanges between Christians and Jews, in order to foster a mutually enriching relationship.

The position includes a stipend of Euro 3000 as well as travel and housing expenses of up to Euro 2500. All payments are exempt from Italian taxation.

Letters of application, including a Curriculum Vitae and a course proposal (title and description of 800 characters), are due by March 15, 2017. A decision will be announced by April 7, 2017.
